Ongoing Groups

Book Club

The Book Club meets monthly at the church. We read a variety of fiction and non-fiction books, including historical biographies and memoirs. Everyone in the church community who enjoys reading is welcome to participate.

Time: 2:00 p.m.
Contact: Carolyn Pooley, 301-279-0490

Crafts Group

An informal group that meets throughout the year for “Crafts, Coffee, and Conversation.” We bring our knitting, crocheting, beading, watercolor projects — you name it. No artistic ability or special skills are required. Everyone is welcome and we try to keep some easy projects on hand. We go on field trips, have sessions devoted to teaching, occasionally celebrate each other’s birthdays, and go out for lunch around the holidays. We have provided decoration for church events, and we sell our handmade creations at the Bizarre Bazaar. We are happy to have new members.

Date: Weekly, Tuesday

Friendly Bridge

The UUCR Friendly Bridge group focuses on learning to play bridge and on improving skills. All levels of players are welcome--from beginner on up. We use "Party Bridge" rules. Hands are played up or down, depending upon the level of skill of those at the table. Cross talk is allowed to the extent that it helps the players understand the game they are playing or gain an understanding of bidding conventions. The focus of the group is to enjoy playing. Competitive attitudes of play are discouraged. There are no set tables, and we swap in and out of games. It is a fun afternoon, and we welcome any and all interested persons. This activity is open to the public.

Date: Monthly, second Saturday
Time: 1:30–4:00 p.m.

Saturday Night Song Circle

Saturday Night Song Circle is a monthly opportunity for singers and instrumentalists to share in an evening of do-it-yourself acoustic folk/blues/ethnic music, in a friendly, supportive environment. The primary focus is on vocal music, but those interested in playing instrumental music are also welcome. Emphasis is on listening, being musically supportive, and learning how to play together as a group.

Small Group Ministries Program

Join a Small Group Ministries group to increase your connection to the congregation, deepen your spiritual search, and expand your community. Led by trained facilitators, each group of up to ten people meets in an environment that fosters trust and non-judgmental listening. Meeting once or twice a month, these dedicated groups explore topics that often result in meaningful experiences and spiritual growth. Groups may choose topics from a substantial list; occasionally groups develop their own topics. Past topics include: forgiveness, friendship, mindfulness, living through loss, service, joy, taking a stand, and what we love.

Socrates Café

Date: Monthly, fourth Saturday

Time: 7:00 to 9:00 p.m.

A mix of adult and family-friendly activities are offered, as well as impromptu events. To sign up for the mailing list, pick up an instruction card from the Visitor Center in the entrance corridor, or see our posters in the lobby.

Women's Spirituality Group

The Women's Spirituality Group deals with whatever is important to us. We delve into the connection with our deepest self and personhood. We explore our "unformed that is forming" as we share on our spiritual paths. Thus our creativity, work, words, ideas, and self join in the spirit of life with each other. This is an open group.

Date: First and third Saturdays
Time: 11:00 a.m. to 1:00 p.m.
Place: Room 44
Contact: Jewell Golden, 301-762-6360
jewelleg@bellatlantic.net

Writers' Group

The mission of the Writers' Group is to aid UUCR members and friends in writing, editing, and publishing their work. Meetings consist of reading in-progress (and often past) work – ranging from poems to vignettes to short stories to novels – for constructive comments and editorial suggestions from other members. Although improvement in writing is our primary purpose, marketing is an issue usually raised and helpful suggestions are always forthcoming. We meet weekly in members' homes and often lunch together.

Date: Weekly, Friday
Time: 10:30 a.m. to 12:30 p.m.
Place: Members' homes
