Middle East Peace

A Real Possibility

Arabs and Israelis—peace is the hope but fear and distrust are the reality.

Professor Ibrahim Soliman will speak on Syria as a key to comprehensive and lasting peace in the Middle East.

A U.S. citizen since 1968, Professor Soliman has maintained close ties to his Syrian family and birthplace. Since 1991, he has been making quiet efforts aimed at bridging the gap between the United States and Syria and exploring the possibility of Syrian-Israeli peace.
